There's A Thrill For Every Frill In Fashionable Neckwear For Late Summer And Autumn Frocks

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—If mention of neckwear conjures up in your mind's eye nothing more or less than a white collar and cuff set, there are surprises in store for you. This fall neckwear is really new, really exciting.

For example, there is the smart new piece of shirred net neckwear as the left, which is really a bit of white ruffled epaulet. Worn on a simple black street frock, it adds an air of afternoon informality to the costume. Ideal for cocktails and tea.

In this frilly, feminine type, there are deep as well as narrow yokes, square and pointed in duchess lace, pique Alencon and princess and duchess lace combined.

Three quarter length bishop sleeves and collar in satin, or in tulle as is shown in the centre, can change the appearance of a simple basic frock in less time than it takes to tie. Shirred elastic tops, draw strings at each wrist and double tiered collar comprise the set.

Pique probably is the most widely used material in neckwear collections. The fitted plastron, beautifully cut to give a long narrow waist to belt and a long waistlet look, comes in a wide variety of colors and is bound to please. Ideal for wear on fall wool dresses in this vestee, shown at right, edged with cut-out embroidery.

Shirred collars are "musts" for the college girl, and are ideal for business, too. A crisp white collar on the neckline of a sweater takes away the too-casual look and adds a note of daintiness. Colors: White on black, canary yellow on chocolate brown and pinks are wine are guaranteed to add charm and personality to the simplest of frocks.

Mr. John Galt, Jr., brother of the bride, supported the bride as best man. Ushering the guests to their places were Mr. J. Caldwell and Mr. F. Harrigan. Miss Jean Galt was second choice as her song, "Unlily." Wedding marches were played by Mr. R. Redin.

Flowers for the wedding party from the church to their waiting automobile was given by Mrs. MacLellan.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly

Mystery Solved
Coast Flashes
Bowlers Away

A few days ago we confronted our readers with a weird baseball story from London, England, in which it appeared that the game had become hopelessly mixed up with cricket. A report in The News of the World casually mentioned such baseball feats as "Peterson, a change bowler, is one spell damaged five batsmen, for sixteen."

Jim Coleman, the published sport columnist of the Vancouver Province, happened to read this column for that day and promptly delved into research work on the alarming matter. James went to his cricket reporter with the amazing story and demanded to know who was crazy. The cricket expert, Charles Ramblottier Foster, solved it at a glance—more than our Edmonton cricketers could.

"Look," said Mr. Foster as he examined the report, "that's all very simple. In England a baseball team has been chosen from the lineup with every man in it, just as in cricket. There isn't any of this mixing-up of the game. Then the other team goes in to bat. It's quite common, my boy, for a team to score as many as 70 runs."

Now isn't that just ducky? And to think that over on this side of the Atlantic we treat cricket like a chapter from scripture—something that is altogether too perfect and sublime to be in any way tinkered with. A ruling from the M.C.C. is treated with the reverence that a true believer accords a sentence or word that Mohammed may have doctored off in an idle moment.

As I have gently hinted once or twice before, this modern England has no mercy. No people in the world have such profound respect for the accepted rules of a game as the English, and yet the bibles have not been placed in the corner with the books of desecration before they even had a suspicion of what the game was all about.

Pacific Coast Flashes

Vancouver reports that Eddie Westcott and Tiger Warrington will battle again in Nova Scotia to decide which of them will hold the Tabbarino and Holyweight championship of Canada. The date is said to be about August 19.

Cost interest were today among the idea of staging this fight in lower part of Vancouver. The Westcott corner, however, when Nova Scotia came through with a $1,000 guarantee for Westcott's services—a figure which Vancouver couldn't meet.

Reported to be badly in need of hard cash, Guy Patrick, Noel Jones and Bobby Rowe seem to expect a jackpot by introducing middle-class racing to Vancouverites in Con. Park. They drew $300 in the opening race and raise the prospects are good. These pint-sized racers whoip it about to around 55 miles an hour on the straight-aways.

The principle is simple in this midgeet racing. The cars go through time trials, at the start to determine post-positions and then they go through a series of heats before making in the main event at the finish. For good measure the three fastest cars in the trials compete in a special Helmer Dash that starts off the entertainment.

JAPANESE ENVOYS LEANING UPON AXIS ALLIANCE

Ambassadors To Italy and Germany Study
Agreement

ROME, Aug. 4.—The Japanese ambassadors to Rome and Berlin in a conference at Lake Como today laid ground work for extensive military, political and economic discussions to be opened shortly by Japan with Italy and Germany.

The official Italian news agency, Stefani, said the Japanese diplomats—Toshio Shiratori from Rome, Gen. Leiji Hiranaka from Berlin—were talking Japanese adherence to the Italian-German military alliance.

The possibility of increased Japanese collaboration with the axis parties is to be explored with Fascist and Nazi leaders by a Japanese delegation which is due to arrive in Naples Aug. 26. Heading the delegation are Gen. Juichi Terauchi and Admiral Mitsuo Osami, who are to attend the Nazi Nuremberg congress Sept. 2-11, and the Fascist anniversary of the "March on Rome" in October.

Japan Said Forced By Action Of U.S.

TOKYO, Aug. 4.—Japan is being forced toward a military alliance with Germany and Italy because of United States abrogation of the Japanese trade treaty with Britain, resistance on the North China currency question, and the government official said today.

In talks designed to settle Anglo-Japanese differences, the Japanese have insisted that the Great Britain withdraw support from the Central China railway, and that the Japanese government currency which the Japanese government North China railway has outlawed and is attempting to replace with its own bank notes.

Obviously, said this government source, "the two attitudes (American and British) are diametrically opposed." They indicate joint pressure on Japan whereby the American and British governments actually are conferring or not.

We have been confidentially informed that Washington first took up in Europe in September and the treaty abrogation was done on the spur of the moment in order to clear the way for military assistance to Britain and France while withholding war materials from Japan. As long as the treaty was in existence this would have been legally impossible.

He declared that "about 10 months after news of the abrogation was received in Tokyo" the British attitude in the Pacific had changed. Before that time the talks had been progressing smoothly.

DOUGHLASS SEEKS CHANCE BUY UP LAND

Responsible Members Of Community Seek To Retain Farms

NELSON, R.C., Aug. 4.—The youthful leader of Canada's Doukhobors has asked the Sun Life Insurance company to step up proceedings against the insurance company to August 15, to give him a chance to consider the purchase of foreclosed Doukhobor lands by responsible members of the Russian religious sect.

Seventeen-year-old John J. Verigin, grandson of Peter Verigin II, and early this year there is no need to expect Doukhobors from their homes as a result of foreclosure proceedings initiated under court order by the Sun Life company. The company has agreed to a $200,000 mortgage insured by the Doukhobor's financial organization, the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood.

ASKED FOR DELAY
Verigin said he has addressed an appeal to R. N. Wilson, the insurance company's loan inspector in British Columbia, asking the delay in proceedings.

He said his announcement, made last night, was a result of an application in Supreme court in Vancouver, initiated by the Sun Life company, for commitment for contempt of court of Sheriff M. E. Nelson. Nelson for alleged failure to evict Doukhobors from their foreclosed lands.

He said Doukhobors are now making a survey of their land to determine those ready to purchase back their land as individuals or small communal groups—the foreclosed properties. A committee has been formed to negotiate with the insurance company in an effort to arrange for the purchase of the lands.

READY TO BUY
Verigin declared the "old, respectable Doukhobors" of this West Coast district, where the foreclosed lands—many thousands of acres on which several thousand Doukhobors live—are located, are ready to purchase back their farms from the insurance company.

He asked that the public draw a distinction between the respectable Doukhobors and those who have been causing trouble.

She was rescued by Lillian Richerby, 14, and a lifeguard, Austin Baker.
